

Additional English

Program outcomes

- ☆ Equip students with historical, literary and cultural dimensions of English studies
- ☆ Demonstrate critical and analytical skills in the interpretation and evaluation of literary text and develop a passion for literature and language
- ☆ Students will develop reading, technical writing, listening and effective speaking skills.
- ☆ Provides experience to appreciate and enjoy literature

Program Specific Outcomes

- ☆ Learn the artistry and utility of the English language and other contemporary forms of culture
- ☆ Develop creativity and engage in lifelong learning
- ☆ Students will be familiar with literary and cultural text
- ☆ They learn moral values
- ☆ Appreciate the creative use of language
- ☆ Develop the ability to appreciate ideas and think creatively
- ☆ Develop interest in reading literary pieces
- ☆ They become proficient in language by reading literature

Course Outcomes

Spectrum – I, II, III, IV

At the completion of course, students will be able to

- ☆ Learn to write essays, reflective writings and critical reviews
- ☆ Students will be able to apply grammatical rules learnt from the text
- ☆ Learn logical connection through reasoning
- ☆ Improve their vocabulary
- ☆ Develop critical thinking and enables them to write and appreciate types of prose
- ☆ Learn basic poetic elements and it helps them to write poems on their own
- ☆ Develop critical thinking and imagination through reading fiction and familiarize with cultural diversity

- ☆ Reading short stories they learn about personality, life stories and events of life
- ☆ Acquire the ability to appreciate and evaluate different types of plays and encourage them to write and perform plays
- ☆ learn to write Slogans and Captions
- ☆ Draft Brochure, leaflet and invitation
- ☆ Write essays and short stories
- ☆ Learn art of summarizing and methods to make notes